

Intended Accomplishment Interview

Date:

The purpose of this interview is for you to begin to lay the foundation of what you are committed to in your life. It gives you the opportunity to declare that which you are committed to fulfilling on during this period and beyond. This will set the standard for the level of which you are committed to performing in your life. As your coach, I have the privilege to partner with you in accomplishing your intended results.

"The great and glorious masterpiece of humanity is to know how to live with a purpose". Montaigne

1. How does coaching fit into your life right now?
2. How will you specifically recognize the fulfillment of this coaching?
(i.e. I will complete projects that I begin, my business has doubled in profit)
3. What would interrupt this coaching program for you?
4. How will you respond when the coaching program seems to be going too slowly, or not working, or repetitious or even seems pointless?
5. What are you willing to work through to have the program be successful?
6. What would you need to alter to create something that is currently not possible in your life?
7. Describe what it takes to be successful in life.
